UPCOMING WEEKENDS...

September 14-16 Fall Harvest Festival

Fall has arrived, and with it comes fairs, festivals, farmers' markets, art retreats, and harvest feasts. Take the wagon to apple picking, join in on one of the many art classes, sign up to demo your craft, sell your home-made goods/crafts at the craft fair, celebrate the treasures of fall.

September 21-23 Body, Mind, and Spirit

A weekend focusing on health and wellness, with fitness classes, massages, native arts, and some spiritual activities as well. Walk-a-thon for JDRF. Join the walk or make a donation.

September 28-30 Safari Adventures

A petting zoo, monkey tag, catch the snakes tail, reptile and animal shows and hands-on demos. Site to site tag sales. Two-for-one specials, rent a site get one free (new reservations only, excludes packages and rentals).

REMINDERS!

Crafts and activities start promptly, are first come first serve, and, if age is designated, are strictly adhered to. Crafts and activities may not be started within 20 minutes of completion time (to properly allow for finishing/cleanup). May be substituted for another craft if supplies run out. Activities in annual brochure may be substituted without notice,

Brialee does not allow outside firewood to be brought in to the park. This includes firewood purchased nearby Brialee. If you are found with outside firewood, your wood will be taken, or you will be required to remove it from the park immediately.

Bikes need to be back at your site by dusk (regardless of age of rider). Please help us by making sure your children know the rules and adhere to them.

Quiet hour / noise – Quiet hour is 11pm. All campers should be settled down at this point, with radios down significantly or off, fires manageable, and activity around the fire done quietly. Children should be back to your site by 10:30pm.
